Presentation

The teacher flashes the word “MODALS” on the screen.

“Do you have any idea what modals are and what they are used for?”

“Very good!, a modal is a type of auxiliary or helping verb that expresses ability, possibility, permission, or obligation.”

“May I ask someone to read the definition on the screen?”

“Thank you. To make it simpler, a modal helps us show if something is possible, allowed, required, or if someone is able to do something. A modal phrase works the same way but uses a helping verb plus the word to.”

Teacher flashes a list of modals using Flashcards.

Modals and Semi-Modals in English:

The students will look at the screen.

“Helping verbs,” “giving permission,” “showing ability,” “may, can,” etc.
